Dear Keith,

Congratulations to you and the entire team on winning seven Emmy Awards for the incredible "Our Story" series. The documentaries of "Our Italian, Our Polish, Our Greek, Our Arab American and Our India" stories are an excellent reflection of the rich heritage in our community.

On behalf of everyone at Channel 7, I want you to know how pleased we are to be broadcasting the one hour premier of "Our African American Story". As the broadcast home of this series, we have witnessed first-hand your dedication and commitment to this project and the exceptional quality associated with these productions.

Therefore, "Our African American Story" will be broadcast during prime time this December on Channel 7.

Most importantly, we believe, "Our African American Story" will have wide audience appeal. We share your vision that the 'Our Story' series is an important vehicle to showcase the diverse cultures in our community and create greater understanding of our rich heritage.

Keith, we look forward to our continued partnership.

Sincerely,
