RUMBLINGS

Famie's next TV special goes beyond pierogis

Far more than just paczki are featured in an hour-long documentary about Detroit's Polish communities created by local chef and filmmaker Keith Famie.

Famie's documentary, called "Our Polish Story," features Polish business and community leaders and is scheduled to air commercial-free at 7 p.m. Saturday on WXYZ-Channel 7.

The documentary features restaurants such as Polonia and Under the Eagle, retailers such as Srodek's Campau Quality Sausage Co. and community leaders such as Cardinal Adam Maida.

The documentary is the second in a series called "Our Story of" produced by Famie. The first, which aired in December, was called "Our Italian Story."

Famie's mission is to preserve the stories of the early immigrants who came to Detroit and became leaders and entrepreneurs.
